Software Version: Cloud Builder v2.4 release train

Description:

The CloudVision Portal 2025.1 release train will be the final train to support the Arista Cloud Builder CVP application. The CloudVision Portal 2025.1 train will reach End of Support on March 31st, 2027, at which time, all releases in the Cloud Builder v2.4 release train will also be considered End of Support with no further official software support on this application.

The current version of Cloud Builder, v2.4, will be the final version of the Cloud Builder CVP application, and will remain in support with maintenance and bug fixes until March 31st, 2027. Customers running Cloud Builder v2.4, or older releases, should work with their Arista sales team to discuss possible migration options. Note: CloudVision as-a-Service does not support the Cloud Builder application and is not affected by this notice.
