Software Version: CVP IPAM application v1.3 release train

Description:

The CloudVision Portal 2025.1 release train will be the final train to support the Arista CVP IPAM application. The CloudVision Portal 2025.1 train will reach End of Support on March 31st, 2027, at which time, all releases in the CVP IPAM v1.3 release train will also be considered End of Support with no further official software support on this application.

The current version of CVP IPAM, v1.3, will be the final version of the CVP IPAM application, and will remain in support with maintenance and bug fixes until March 31st, 2027. Customers running CVP IPAM v1.3, or older releases, should work with their Arista sales team to discuss possible migration options.

Note: CloudVision as-a-Service does not support the CVP IPAM application and is not affected by this notice.
